Who is Frontier Brands?

Frontier Brands is the owner, manufacturer, and distributor of Frontier Cigars to the wholesale distribution and retail cigar trade.

What types of cigars are Frontier?

Frontier manufactures and distributes Cheroots and XL Corona cigars.

What is the Frontier Cheroot?

The Frontier Cheroot (5.0" x 38 gauge) is an open-ended old-fashioned cigar made popular in the old western movies. Rough, crooked and a little rustic. Blended with the finest all-natural tobaccos from the Dominican Republic and Nicaragua wrapped in a USA Pennsylvania Broadleaf wrapper. Available in 4 flavors: Honey, Honey-Berry, Russian Cream and Sweet Aromatic. Packaged in pouches of 5 cigars.

What is the Frontier XL?

Frontier XL's (6.0" x 44 gauge) are all-natural large sized Corona cigars made with the finest all-natural Dominican and Nicaragua tobaccos and wrapped in a high-quality Ecuadorian leaf wrapper. Currently available in two flavors: Russian Cream and Sweet Aromatic. Packaged in pouches of 3 cigars.

Where are Frontier Cigars made?

All Frontier Cigars are made in our factory in the Dominican Republic.

What type of packaging is used?

Frontier Cheroots and XLs are packaged in special high quality re-sealable stay-fresh pouches.

Is there a "shelf life" for Frontier cigars?

With our proprietary infusion process, packaging methods and stay-fresh pouches there is no need to humidify our cigars. Under normal retail conditions our cigars can maintain their flavor and freshness for years!

Aren't all mass-market cigars the same?

No! Many cigar companies use inferior tobaccos and man-made components like homogenized tobacco leaf (HTL) in their manufacturing process. Essentially, brown looking paper. Yuk! All our products consist of all-natural tobacco manufactured under our strict quality control process.

Why is Frontier better?

Frontier uses only the highest quality all-natural Dominican Republic, Nicaraguan and USA Pennsylvania Broadleaf tobaccos. Our cigars are infused using a special process that ensures a consistent experience start to finish. Our manufacturing process provides a perfect draw in every cigar.

I already have other brands in stock. Why do I need Frontier?

Without sacrificing quality, our cigars are better priced for greater profits. In addition to the great price points, Frontier offers generous distributor, retail store and consumer incentives and rebate programs.

Are Frontier Cigars in stock?

Yes! Frontier Brands controls the entire manufacturing process. Instead of trying to shotgun the entire marketplace, Frontier Brands has systematically rolled out our cigars to avoid shortages. We maintain a significant inventory of all our products in preparation for our market expansion! Generally, shipping occurs within 2-5 business days.

Does Frontier provide merchandising assistance?

Yes! We have in-store marketing materials such as Point-of-Sale display units, shelf-talkers with a customizable pricing section, double-sided adhesive inside mount door pushers and various sized promotional banners. We also offer activation kits for "Cash and Carry" distributors to provide high visibility of Frontier.
